

S.P.R.I.N.G.

(Supporting Parents and Relatives In Neonatal Grief)

Participating in

Global Wave of Light Service

Saturday 18th October 2008

As part of

Baby Loss Awareness Week

Service starts at 6.45 p.m, with the candle lighting to be at 7.00 p.m. at The War Memorial Garden,
Poole Park

This service will be very short and low key. With some music and readings. The opportunity to light a candle and release a balloon
In Memory of your Baby.

Please bring a candle in a jar with you.
(be aware it will probably be windy)

Please allow time to park and walk to the Garden.

